

When Winds Are Raging O'er the Upper Ocean

Psalm 34:17-20

REST

Lyrics by: Harriet Beecher Stowe

Music by: Charles Beecher, 1853

Piano

1. When winds are rag - ing o'er the up - per o - cean,
2. Far, far be - neath, the noise of tem - pests di - eth,
3. So to the heart that knows Thy love, O Pur - est!
4. Far, far a - way, the roar of pas - sion di - eth,
5. O Rest of rests! O Peace, ser - ene, e - ter - nal!

Pno.

4

And bil - lows wild con - tend with an - gry roar, 'Tis said, far down,
And sil - ver waves chime ev - er peace - ful - ly, And no rude storm,
There is a tem - ple, sa - cred ev - er - more, And all the bab -
And lov - ing thoughts rise calm and peace - ful - ly, And no rude storm, Thou ev - er liv - est, and Thou chang - est never. And in the se -

Pno.

8

be - low the wild com - mo - tion, That peace - ful still - ness reign - eth ev - how fierce so - e'er it fli - eth, Dis - turbs the Sab - bath of that deep - ble of life's an - gry voic - es, Dies in hushed still - ness at its peace - how fierce so - e'er it fli - eth, Dis - turbs the soul that dwells, O Lord, cret of Thy pre - sence dwell - eth, Full - ness of joy, for - ev - er and Pno.

12

er - more.
er - sea.
ful in door.
in Thee.
for - ever.