1. I walk in dan-ger all the way. The thought shall nev - er leave me
2. I pass through tri - als all the way, With sin and ills con - tend - ing;
3. Death doth pur - sue me all the way, No - where I rest se - cure - ly;
4. I walk with an - gels all the way, They shield me and be - friend me;

Pno.

That Sa - tan, who has marked his prey, Is plot - ting to de - ceive me.
In pa - tience I must bear each day The cross of God's own send - ing.
He comes by night, he comes by day, And takes his prey most sure - ly.
All Sa - tan's power is held at bay When heaven - ly hosts at - tend me;

Pno.

This Foe with hid - den snares May seize me un - a - ware's
Oft in ad - ver - si - ty I know not where to flee;
A fail - ing breath, and I In death's strong grasp may lie
They are my sure de - fense, All fear and sor - row, hence!

Pno.

If e'er I fail to watch and pray, I walk in dan - ger all the way.
When storms of woe my soul dis - may, I pass through tri - als all the way.
To face e - ter - ni - ty for aye. Death doth pur - sue me all the way.
Un - harmed by foes, do what they may, I walk with an - gels all the way.
